Opinion:

- In the majority most OPINION pieces have been about Obama and Washington Politics
- We are now ~ 11 weeks out from Mid-terms – it's “crunch time”
- I do not want to believe that money can “buy elections”. However it IS a necessary element.
- Campaign donations are not just a matter of how big your bank account is.
- A small donation is better than no donation. You'd be surprised at the power of numbers.
- In the end, THE VOTE IS THE ONLY THING THAT MATTERS.
- This is an important time to support your preferred candidates with time, phone calls & other volunteer activities.
- Go to the community meetings and meet the candidates.
- Do your homework now.
- 11th hour homework is an exercise in desperation – for everyone.
- Little new information is on display in the final throes, much of it is dishonest, distorted or contrived (just remember Harry Reid: he is known for making fabricated lies about Romney's tax statements).
- I know many folks are pinched by the lovely economy (courtesy of Progressive Liberals)
- If we don't remedy the current economic policies you'll feel more than a “pinch”, believe me!
- Develop goals: I will not rest until we oust Gov. Hickenlooper”
- Develop goals: I will not rest until Cory Gardner displaces liberal rank & file, Mark Udall.
- Talk to your friends & neighbors – be prepared with solid information - this is the time to dispatch with guesswork.

- I have done much of the work gathering sources of information
  - I hope you will spend a few moments on-line to review
  - Meanwhile, I encourage all legal Colorado residents to REGISTER to vote, and/or to review your registration status at the Sec. of State's website or the County Clerk and Registrar's website. Make all appropriate changes of address, phone number, email address and party affiliation. Remember, according to SOS records there are 1,001,930 Unaffiliated Voters in the state. There are 65,000 more unaffiliated (Independent) voters than there are Republicans or Democrats. There are no "unaffiliated party candidates". UAF status is NOT an excuse to hide and abstain from voting. We must compel those folks to get engaged.
  - Lastly, we need individuals to GOTV (Get Out The Vote). THE VOTE IS THE ONLY THING THAT MATTERS

Private sector steps up to protect US power grid as feds stall

A persistent failure by federal lawmakers to protect the nation's electric grid from attack isn't stopping private sector efforts to prevent damage from a nuclear blast.

An Obama administration initiative to spend $7 billion on the development of the electric grid in six African nations, as Watchdog reported, earned a stern rebuke from a security expert concerned about the administration's priorities. (Incompetence)

International Auto Logistics of Brunswick, Ga., last year won a $305 million bid to handle the transport of about 66,000 personal vehicles owned by service members, family members and civilian employees who move each year within and beyond the United States.

Immediately after the new contract began this spring, complaints began rolling in: Cars and trucks shipped to wrong locations, delays of several weeks, vehicles damaged upon arrival and an online vehicle tracking system that typically fails. (Incompetence)

Navy removes Bibles from guest rooms. There is growing outrage among sailors and religious liberty advocates over a directive that calls for the removal of Bibles from lodges and hotels run on U.S. Navy bases. The directive comes after an atheist group filed a formal complaint earlier this year over the placement of Bibles in the rooms.

AFP-Colorado Statehouse Accountability Project Tears Into Targeted State Senators. Earlier this week, we reported that Americans for Prosperity was launching an ad attacking Sen. Mark Udall's support of Obamacare. It turns out that he had some help here in Colorado in three Democrat State Senators – Andy Kerr, Cheri Jahn, and Jeanne Nicholson. And, AFP-Colorado's Statehouse Accountability Project is nailing them, too, with a $100,000 ad buy in Jeffco.

We just saw this excellent movie yesterday and we encourage you and everyone you know to take the time to see this movie which is well done, educational, and full of American history that most people have no clue about. It factually exposes the America Haters including many in Academia and our Government of their goals in a polite, clinical and factual manner. (Mike Meyer)
